Dear Friend,

As proud supporters of The Joseph Sams School, we are excited to host The Joseph Sams School's annual "Clays for a Cause" Sporting Clay Tournament. This charity shoot is scheduled for Friday, October 5th, and we are excited to share that we will again host the tournament at BIG RED OAK PLANTATION in Gay, GA. We will begin at 8:00am with breakfast, and conclude around noon with a home cooked barbeque lunch, raffle prizes and awards ceremony.

We know that everyone is incredibly busy right now; however, we all could all use a break and have a little fun spending a morning shooting sporting clays with each other. Raising money for charitable causes such as The Joseph Sams School, and helping the children and families whom they serve is more important and fulfilling than ever. We hope that you can come and participate, and enjoy some time away from the day to day stress of our industry.

We would like to ask that you take a few minutes to learn about The Joseph Sams School (www.josephsamsschool.org), and consider joining forces with us as we raise both awareness and funds for a very unique and special school. Please review and respond to the enclosed sponsorship, participation and donation opportunities no later than Wednesday, September 26th.

New this year, we are pleased to be able to offer online registration. To register online, please visit www.josephsamsschool.org/events to register. We look forward to spending a day with you filled with fun, food and fellowship as we help support The Joseph Sams School.

Please Note:

Due to the limited carts available we highly suggest you bring your own cart for the course.
